

CPME Website Compliance

Does CPME.org meet WCAG 2.1 website accessibility standards?

A. CPME is committed to facilitating the accessibility and usability of its website, regardless of technology or ability. Please be aware that our efforts are ongoing. If, at any time, you have any specific questions, feedback, or concerns about the accessibility of any particular web page within our sites or if you experience any difficulty in accessing any part of this website, please feel free to email us at cpmestaff@cpme.org or call us at 301-581-9200, and we will work with you to provide the information, item, or transaction you seek through an alternate communication method that is accessible for you (for example, through telephone support).

Can I use content from CPME.org on my website?

A. In general, CPME requests that you contact us for permission before using any materials found on our website. As per the CPME.org User Agreement: "You acknowledge and agree that content, including but not limited to text, software, music, sound, photographs, video, design, graphics, or other material contained on this Site ('Content') is protected by copyrights, trademarks, service marks, patents, or other proprietary rights and laws. You may not copy, reproduce, distribute or create derivative works from this Content or otherwise use, transmit, rebroadcast, publish, or distribute in any form this Content without CPME's prior, written consent."

Can I download a copy of the logo?

A. The CPME logo may only be used in conjunction with the CPME approval/ accreditation/ recognition statement on materials or websites of accredited colleges of podiatric medicine, approved residencies, fellowships, and continuing education providers, and recognized specialty boards.

If the CPME logo is used digitally, the logo must link to the www.cpme.org webpage. CPME's accreditation/approval/recognition statements are available online in the respective sections of the Council's website.
