

CPME Website Compliance

Does CPME.org meet WCAG 2.1 website accessibility standards?

A. CPME is committed to facilitating the accessibility and usability of its website for all uses, regardless of technology or ability. Our accessibility efforts are ongoing as we work to improve the user experience and apply relevant accessibility standards.

If you have specific questions, feedback, or concerns regarding the accessibility of any page on our website, or if you have trouble accessing any part of the site, please contact us at cpmestaff@cpme.org or call us at 301-581-9220. We will make reasonable efforts to provide the information, item, or transaction you seek through an alternative communication method that is accessible to you, such as telephone support.

Can I use content from CPME.org on my website?

A. In general, CPME requests that you contact us for permission before using any materials found on our website.

As stated in the CPME.org User Agreement:

"You acknowledge and agree that content, including but not limited to text, software, music, sound, photographs, video, design, graphics, or other material contained on this Site ('Content') is protected by copyrights, trademarks, service marks, patents, or other proprietary rights and laws. You may not copy, reproduce, distribute or create derivative works from this Content or otherwise use, transmit, rebroadcast, publish, or distribute in any form this Content without CPME's prior, written consent."

Can I download a copy of the logo?

A. The CPME logo may only be used in conjunction with the CPME approval, accreditation, or recognition statement on the materials or websites of accredited colleges of podiatric medicine, approved residencies, fellowships, continuing education providers, and recognized specialty boards.

If the CPME logo is used digitally, it must link directly to the CPME website at www.cpme.org. CPME accreditation, approval, and recognition statements are available online within the respective sections of the Council's website.
